

PARTICIPANT FEE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
Myriad Fleet, LLC 401(k) Retirement Plan ("Plan")
August 30, 2021

This Disclosure Statement is provided by your employer to explain the costs associated with participating in the Plan. It is for informational purposes and is intended to help you make informed decisions about your investments. Unless specifically noted below, all information in this statement is provided as of the above date.

The document includes these sections:

1. General Plan Information
2. Plan Administrative Expenses
3. Individual Expenses
4. Comparative Chart of Plan Investment Options
("Comparative Chart")

Highlights

- This disclosure is provided for informational purposes. You should read this document carefully, but are not required to take any other specific action.
- This document explains the costs and fees that you may be charged for participating in your employer's retirement plan.
- This document may be helpful when making decisions about your plan investments.

Special Note: No fees will be charged to you if you have no account balance in the plan.
If you are an Eligible Employee* and not participating, you can enroll at: www.mykplan.com or by calling the Participant Call Center.

*Your plan may have certain age and length of service requirements that you must meet in order to participate. Since you received this notice, you may have become eligible and may already be participating in the plan. If you would like to confirm your eligibility under the plan, you may log on to the Participant Website or contact a Participant Call Center Representative.

1. General Plan Information

Giving investment instructions¹

- To direct or change your Plan investments, you must either:
 - i. make your investment elections on the Participant Website www.mykplan.com, or
 - ii. speak with a Participant Call Center Representative at 1-800-695-7526, or
 - iii. complete an enrollment form.
- You may direct the investment of all funds held in your Plan account.

Limitations on instructions. Your financial transactions that you request prior to 4:00 p.m. ET or the close of the NYSE, if earlier, on a business day are effective that day. Any financial transactions you request after that time will be treated as received, and will be processed, the next business day.

Designated investment options. Your Plan has a menu of investment options into which you can direct the investment of your plan funds. Generally, Plan investments are selected to provide a wide range of different asset classes (like stocks and bonds) as well as investment styles and managers. Since it is important to understand how these investment choices fit into your personal investment strategy, your company has provided extensive information on these investment choices through ADP's Participant Website and the Participant Call Center. Please see the Comparative Chart section below for the names of, and information about, these designated investment options.

Voting and other rights. The Plan Sponsor will exercise any voting or other rights associated with ownership of shares or units of the designated investment options held in your plan account.

¹ Your plan has employed ADP Retirement Services as your plan's record keeper. ADP Retirement Services provides a comprehensive Participant Website to help you join the plan, initiate transactions or get more information. The participant website and toll free number are generally available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week except during periods of scheduled maintenance. In addition, the Participant Call Center Representatives are knowledgeable in your Plan's provisions, operations and investment choices. Whether you are already in the Plan and need help with a question or you wish to enroll and begin contributing, the Participant Call Center Representative can help Monday through Friday during normal business hours.

2. Plan Administrative Expenses.

Plan administrative expenses, for services such as legal, consulting, audit, accounting, trustee, investment management and advice, and record keeping services, may be incurred to administer the plan. These expenses of administering the Plan may be paid by your employer or from the Plan, or both. Administrative expenses that are not paid by the employer may be deducted from your account. The actual expenses deducted from your account, if any, will be reflected on your quarterly account statement and on the Participant Website at www.mykplan.com. While your employer is currently invoiced as a general matter for administrative fees charged by the Plan's recordkeeper or collected by the recordkeeper on behalf of another service provider, the recordkeeper charges an asset-based plan-level processing fee that will be charged against participant accounts on a pro rata basis.

3. Individual Expenses.

The Plan will apply the following charges directly to your account, if applicable:

Transaction/Service	Fee
Final Distribution	$55.00 per distribution
Withdrawal	$55.00 per withdrawal
Loan Initiation	$125.00 processing fee per Loan set-up
Buy/Sell Investments	Buying or selling some investments may result in individual account charges specific to those investments, such as redemption fees. See the Comparative Chart below for details.

4. Comparative Chart Investment Options – August 30, 2021

The Comparative Chart section includes important information to help you compare the investment options in your retirement plan, including performance information, fees and expenses.

Additional investment information such as the investments; objectives, strategies and portfolio turnover rate can be found at ADP's Participant website www.mykplan.com on the "Investment Performance and Information" page. You may also contact the ADP Participant Call Center at 1-800-695-7526, ADP Retirement Services, 71 Hanover Road, MS 3333, Florham Park, NJ, 07932 to request additional investment information or a paper copy of the information available on the web site. Additional fund information is available in the Enrollment Guide. If you have not received a copy of the Enrollment Guide, please contact your Plan Administrator. Once your Plan's transfer to ADP is complete, you will receive a Welcome letter notifying you that you have access to your account online including this additional fund information.

Variable Performance Investment Comparative Chart²

The Comparative Chart below includes performance of investment options that do not have a fixed or stated rate of return. It shows:

- Average Annual total Return³ - Investment option performance over time as compared to an appropriate benchmark⁴ for the same time period,
- Total Annual Operating Expenses -The actual cost to you for investing in a fund is the Net Expense Ratio amount. The impact of that expense is already included in the Average Annual Total Return displayed.
- Shareholder type Charges and Investment Restrictions – are investment related fees not reflected in Total Annual Operating Expenses, and fund specific investment restrictions.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Your investment in these options could lose money. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. The most recent performance and information about risks is available at www.mykplan.com on the "Investment Performance and Information" page.

² Please note that this chart presents certain information about investments in the Plan. The information may differ in content (for example, the time periods over which performance is calculated) or in format from other material provided to you in written communications, on the Participant Website or in other websites or publications.

The Net Expense Ratio is the fund's "Total Expense Ratio (Gross)" reduced for any investment management fee waivers that are currently in effect. The Gross Expense Ratio is the fund's total expense ratio which is defined as the total cost of investing and administering assets, including management fees, 12b-1 fee (if applicable) in a mutual fund or other collective fund expressed as a percentage of total assets.

The Per $1,000 Total Annual Operating Expenses listed in the table above is the total annual operating expenses of the investment for a one-year period expressed as a dollar amount for a $1,000 investment, assuming no returns and based on the stated percentage.

Fees and expenses are only one of several factors that you should consider when making investment decisions. The cumulative effect of fees and expenses may substantially reduce the growth of your retirement account. For more information about fees and expenses, visit the Department of Labor's web site at <http://www.dol.gov/agencies/ebsa/key-topics/retirement/retirement-plan-fee-disclosures>.

Myriad Fleet, LLC 401(k) Retirement Plan
DEFAULT INVESTMENT NOTICE

Our Plan will be moving to a new recordkeeper. As a result, the investment funds in our Plan's investment lineup will be changing when we transition to the new recordkeeper, and our Plan's current investment funds will be mapped to investment funds in the Plan's new investment lineup. The new investment lineup is provided in Section 4 of the Participant Fee Disclosure Statement being provided to you. How current balances and new contributions will be transferred and mapped to the new investment funds is explained in two other documents we have provided to you with your Blackout Notice: "Important Information Regarding Your Investments During the Conversion Process," and the "Fund Mapping Form."

This Default Investment Update Notice provides additional information about the default investment in the Plan's new investment lineup.

Current Participants with an Account Balance in the Plan

If you are invested in a default investment at our current recordkeeper because you have not made an affirmative investment election, your current account balance will be mapped to a new investment as described in the Fund Mapping Form when it is transferred to the Plan's new investment lineup. Your contributions and loan repayments will be mapped in the same manner. You will thereafter continue to be defaulted into this new investment until you make an affirmative election. If you have made an affirmative investment election, contributions and loan repayments processed by the new recordkeeper before participant investment election records are received from our current recordkeeper and processed will temporarily be invested in our Plan's New Plan Default Investment until participant investment election records are received. The New Plan Default Investment is explained below.

Participants Who First Contribute On or After the scheduled conversion date

If you first contribute to the Plan (or have a contribution made on your behalf) at any time on or after the scheduled conversion date and you do not make an affirmative investment election, your contributions will be invested in our Plan's New Plan Default Investment, explained below.

The New Plan Default Investment

The New Plan Default Investment will be the following:

Fund Name
Fidelity Freedom Index Income Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2005 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2010 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2015 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2020 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2025 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2030 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2035 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2040 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2045 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2050 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2055 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2060 Fund - Premier Class
Fidelity Freedom Index 2065 Fund - Premier Class

This New Plan Default Investment is a "Target Date Series." Except for participants who are mapped to a fund in the Target Date Series as explained above, participants who make a contribution to the Plan (or have a contribution made on their behalf) that is processed by the Plan's new recordkeeper under the circumstances described above will be defaulted into a fund in the Target Date Series as follows: Participants who are defaulted and either have a date of birth prior to January 1, 1938 or for whom Plan records do not indicate a date of birth, will be defaulted into the most conservative fund in the Target Date Series (i.e., the "Income" option, or if no income option exists, the fund with the earliest retirement year stated). All other participants who are defaulted will be defaulted into the fund in the Target Date Series with a stated retirement age closest to the year in which they would attain age 65. If a participant is defaulted into the most conservative fund in the Target Date Series due to a missing date of birth, the participant will remain so invested until the participant makes an affirmative investment election. If a participant is temporarily defaulted due to a delay in receipt of our Plan's investment election records, temporarily defaulted amounts will be reallocated as soon as administratively feasible after records are received.

How to Make or Change Your Investment Election or Obtain Investment Information

After the blackout period ends, you can make or change your investment election for existing balances and future contributions, including amounts invested in a default fund, at any time by visiting the new recordkeeper's Participant web site or calling the new recordkeeper's Voice Response System. When the blackout ends, you will receive a welcome letter that explains how to do this. If you do not wish to have the investment of your current account balance and future contributions mapped as shown in the Fund Mapping Form, you may change your current elections before the start of the blackout period as described in the Blackout Notice provided to you.

For information about a particular fund, please read the fund prospectus (or information statement, in the case of collective funds). You can also obtain information about the Plan's new investment lineup by referring to Section 4 of the Participant Fee Disclosure Statement. Once the blackout period ends, a prospectus (or information statement, in the case of collective funds and a fund fact sheet for the new investment option(s)) will be available for your review on the Participant website or by calling the Voice Response System. If you would like to receive a prospectus for the new investment options at any time before the end of the blackout period, please contact your Plan Administrator.

Information About the Default Investment

Different investments-stocks, bonds and money market/stable value funds react differently to the same market conditions. For instance, when one is at a high, another is at a low, and the third may be somewhere in between the two. Our Plan's new recordkeeper classifies investment options into four general categories, each of which has a different amount of investment risk attached to it. The greater the risk, the greater the possible return. The four categories, ranked according to risk, from most conservative to most aggressive, are: Income, which is generally comprised of fixed and bond investments, Growth and Income, which is generally comprised of a combination of stock, fixed and bond investments, Growth, which is generally comprised of stock investments which seek capital appreciation over time and Aggressive Growth, which is generally comprised of stock investments which seek high capital appreciation.

The objective, risk and return characteristics, strategy, and gross expense ratio for the default investment fund(s) listed above are as follows:

Fund objective, risk and return characteristics and strategy information for all publicly-traded mutual funds, excluding Money Market funds, is provided by Morningstar®. Information for Money Market funds and certain other types of funds is provided by the respective fund manager.

An expense ratio is a fund's annual operating expenses expressed as a percentage of average net assets and includes management fees, administrative fees, and any marketing and distribution fees. Expense ratios directly reduce returns to investors. For publicly-traded mutual funds, the net prospectus expense ratio is collected from the fund's most recent prospectus and provided by Morningstar. Commingled Fund expense ratios are provided by the investment managers.

Myriad Fleet, LLC 401(k) Retirement Plan

Summary Plan Description

INTRODUCTION

Sooner or later, you're going to need savings to supplement your retirement income. Achieving financial security for your future is not just a matter of how much you earn, but more importantly, it's a matter of how much you save.

By saving regularly through your Company's 401(k) savings Plan, even if only a few dollars each payday, you can accumulate more money in a few years than you would think possible. It is one of the surest ways to give yourself a head start on developing financial security.

Myriad Fleet, LLC wants to help you meet your financial goals with this Plan. Your savings grow faster with tax-deferred dollars, Company contributions (if any), and investment opportunities. Set your goals high and join the Plan.

This booklet describes the major features of the Myriad Fleet, LLC 401(k) Retirement Plan effective as of October 01, 2021. Read this booklet carefully and think about it. The question should not be whether you should join, but how little or how much you should invest for your financial security.

Copies of the Plan and certain related documents are available for your review in the offices of the Company. IF THERE ARE ANY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THIS DESCRIPTION AND THE TERMS OF THE PLAN DOCUMENT, THE TERMS OF THE PLAN DOCUMENT WILL GOVERN. Likewise, any oral information provided to you regarding the terms of the Plan is not binding on the Plan or the Plan's administrator to the extent it conflicts with the terms of the Plan document.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PLAN?

All employees of Myriad Fleet, LLC and any participating Affiliates, if applicable are eligible to participate in the Plan upon completing the Plan's eligibility requirements.

WHAT ARE THE PLAN'S ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS?

In order to participate in the Plan you must be a least age 21 and have completed 1 Month of Service. You will receive credit for one Month of Service for each month in which you complete one Hour of Service. An Hour of Service is any hour for which you are paid or are entitled to payment. If you are absent from employment with the Employer because of qualified military service, your military service will count as service for purposes of meeting the Plan's eligibility requirements.

If you terminate employment after becoming a participant in the Plan, or after satisfying the Plan's eligibility requirements but before actually becoming a participant, and are later rehired as an eligible employee, you will become a participant in the Plan on the next Entry Date following your rehire. If you terminate employment before satisfying the Plan's eligibility requirements and are later rehired, you must satisfy the Plan's eligibility requirements before you may participate in the Plan.

WHEN DOES PLAN PARTICIPATION BEGIN?

You will become a participant on the first day of the month following the completion of the eligibility requirements.

HOW DOES THE PLAN WORK?

The basic operation of the Plan is simple:

You may elect to defer a percentage of your eligible pay every pay period. This contribution is known as your Elective Deferrals. In order to make Elective Deferrals, you must complete an Enrollment Form and return it to the Company prior to the date established by the administrator at your Company, or enroll through the ADP Voice Response System or the Participant Website. You should consult the administrator at your Company to learn which enrollment methods are available for your Company. Your Elective Deferrals will then begin in the first payroll cycle of the following month.

For purposes of the Plan, eligible earnings is defined as compensation as reflected on your Form W-2 including your Elective Deferrals and any other contributions you may have made to a "Section 125" cafeteria plan, and any qualified transportation fringe benefits under Section 132(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), but excluding dependent care, company car expenses, employee business expenses, moving expenses and other noncash fringe benefits. If you are self-employed, your eligible earnings will be your Earned Income. For purposes of determining benefits under the Plan, eligible earnings also will include payments made within the later of 2-1/2 months after you sever from employment (as defined under Section 401(k) of the Code) and the end of the Plan Year or Limitation Year (whichever is applicable) that includes your severance date, if they are (1) payments that, absent a severance from employment, would have been paid to you while you continued in employment with the Company and are regular compensation for services during or outside your regular working hours, commissions, bonuses, or other similar compensation; (2) payments for accrued sick, vacation or other leave (but only if you would have been able to use the leave if your employment continued); or (3) payments you receive under a nonqualified deferred compensation plan (but only if the payments are taxable and would have been paid to you if your employment had continued). If the Company makes “differential wage payments” (defined below) to employees who are on active military duty for a period of more than 30 days, those payments also will be included in eligible earnings. “Differential wage payments” are any payments made by an employer to an individual for any period during which the individual is performing service in the uniformed services while on active duty for a period of more than 30 days and which represents all or a portion of the wages he or she would have received from the employer if the individual were performing services for the employer. Please note that the inclusion in eligible earnings of any post-termination amounts (including differential wage payments) described in this paragraph is subject to the exclusions from eligible earnings elected by the Company, if any, described earlier in this Section.

Except as described under Question “What Happens if I Do Not Elect to Participate in the Plan and Do Not Specifically Decline to Enroll,” below, the amount of your Elective Deferrals and any additional Company contributions are invested as you direct in accordance with the investment options provided in the Plan. These contributions (other than contributions of Roth Elective Deferrals, as explained in the discussion of Elective Deferrals in the Section entitled “What contributions are made to the Plan?”) and any accumulated investment earnings on all contributions will be tax-deferred until you receive a distribution. Special rules apply regarding the tax treatment of earnings on Roth Elective Deferrals Roth rollovers and In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions. See the Section entitled “How are my distributions from the Plan taxed?” below.

The Plan has several features that allow you to tailor it to your own personal needs. You decide whether or not you want to make Elective Deferrals from 1% to 90% of your eligible earnings. You decide how all contributions attributable to your total Account Balance are to be invested. You also have the right to change these decisions (see Question “What Happens if I Change my Mind?”).

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT ELECT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PLAN AND DO NOT SPECIFICALLY DECLINE TO ENROLL?

A salary deferral agreement must be completed either to elect to make Elective Deferrals to the Plan, or to specifically decline to enroll in the Plan. If you have not completed a salary deferral agreement within 30 days after you become eligible to enter the Plan and make salary deferrals, we will automatically withhold 2% of your eligible earnings from your paycheck each payroll period and contribute that amount to the Plan as a Pre-Tax Elective Deferral. Your automatic contributions to the Plan will be invested in a default investment fund selected by the Company, which will be identified to you prior to the first automatic contribution. You may enter a salary deferral agreement at any time to select an alternative deferral amount or to elect not to defer under the Plan (see the Section entitled “What Happens if I Change my Mind?”). Your automatic contributions will be treated as Elective Deferrals as described in the rest of this SPD.

WHAT CONTRIBUTIONS ARE MADE TO THE PLAN?

- ELECTIVE DEFERRALS

Under our Plan you are able to make two kinds of Elective Deferrals. You may make Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals, or you may make Roth Elective Deferrals. If you make a Pre-Tax Elective Deferral, then your current taxable income is reduced by the amount of the deferral contribution so you pay less in current federal income taxes. Later, when the Plan distributes the deferrals and earnings, you will pay the taxes on those deferrals and the earnings (unless you further delay income taxation by properly rolling these amounts over to another eligible tax qualified plan or a traditional individual retirement account). Therefore, with a Pre-Tax Elective Deferral, federal income taxes on the deferral contributions and on the earnings are only postponed. Eventually, you will have to pay taxes on these amounts. With a Roth Elective Deferral, you must pay current income tax on the deferral contribution. If you elect to make Roth Elective Deferrals, the deferral amounts are subject to federal income taxes in the year of deferral, but the deferrals and, as long as the distribution is “qualified”, the earnings on the deferrals are not subject to federal income taxes when distributed to you (see the Section entitled “How are my Distributions from the Plan Taxed?”). You may contribute any combination of Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals and Roth Elective Deferrals from 1% to 90% (in whole percentages) of your eligible earnings. You also may elect to contribute a specified dollar amount out of your eligible earnings. Any election made in dollars may not exceed the Plan’s limit on the maximum deferral percentage. The total combined amount of your eligible earnings that you may defer either as a Pre-Tax Elective Deferral or as a Roth Elective Deferral is subject to both the Plan’s limit on the maximum deferral percentage and the Internal Revenue Code limit on deferrals (see the section entitled “Are there any limits to the amount I can contribute?”).

There are several ways to contribute Roth Elective Deferrals to the Plan. The first is by electing to contribute Roth Elective Deferrals directly to the Plan. (Roth Elective Deferrals contributed directly to the Plan will be recorded in a Roth Elective Deferral Account.) The second is by making a Roth Rollover Contribution to the Plan (see the section entitled “If I received a distribution from another eligible retirement plan, may I contribute that amount to the Plan?”). Except where otherwise indicated in this Summary Plan Description, Roth Elective Deferrals are treated the same as Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals under the Plan. Your Plan provides another way to contribute Roth Elective Deferrals to the Plan -- by making an “In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution” within the Plan (see the subsection entitled “May I Make an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution?”)

- MATCHING CONTRIBUTIONS

The Company may decide to make a Matching Contribution to the Plan, although the Company is not required to make this contribution. You must make Elective Deferrals to the Plan to receive this Matching Contribution. The percentage of Elective Deferrals to be matched will be determined by the Company and allocated to participants at the end of the Plan Year.

- NONELECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS

The Company may decide to make a Nonelective Contribution to the Plan, although the Company is not required to do so. The Nonelective Contribution will be allocated to all employees eligible to participate in the Plan. You must be an eligible Participant employed by the Employer on December 31 to receive this allocation. If your Employment terminated prior to December 31 due to death, Disability (defined later in this booklet), or attainment of age 65, the Plan's Normal Retirement Age, you will be eligible to receive any Nonelective Contribution that the Company may make for the year in which your Employment terminated.

Any discretionary Nonelective Contribution that the Company may make will be allocated (i.e., divided) among employees eligible to share in the contribution for the Plan Year. For this purpose, eligible participants will be assigned to one of the following groups:

Each participant in separate classification

If the Company makes a discretionary Nonelective Contribution for a Plan Year, the Company may allocate a different amount on behalf of each group. After the total amount allocated to each group is determined, each group's allocation will then be allocated to eligible participants within the group. The amount allocated to a group will be allocated to each eligible participant in the group based on the ratio that the participant's eligible earnings bears to the total eligible earnings of all participants in the group. For this purpose, eligible earnings are defined as described above in the Section entitled "How Does the Plan Work?" but without regard to any exclusions from eligible earnings that the Company may have elected under the Plan.

The Nonelective Contribution, if made, will be allocated as of the end of each Plan Year based on eligible earnings within the computation period.

IN-PLAN ROTH ROLLOVER CONTRIBUTIONS

See the section entitled, "MAY I MAKE IN-PLAN ROTH ROLLOVER CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PLAN?"

ARE THERE ANY LIMITATIONS TO THE AMOUNT I CAN CONTRIBUTE?

Ordinarily, the Internal Revenue Service requires retirement plans that permit employees to defer taxes by making elective contributions to satisfy certain complex tests. Depending on the results of these tests, restrictions on contributions for certain higher paid employees may be necessary.

Congress also limits the annual dollar amount of Elective Deferrals that you can contribute to your account. For 2021, the limit is $19,500. After 2021, this limit will be adjusted for inflation.

Congress also limits the annual eligible earnings to be considered for purposes of qualified plan contributions and testing. For 2021, this limit is $290,000. This limit may also be increased periodically to reflect cost-of-living increases.

Finally, Congress limits the total amount of “annual additions” (contributions made to the Plan by you or by the Company on your behalf) allocated to your account each year. For 2021, this limit is the lesser of 100% of your eligible earnings (without regard to any exclusions from eligible earnings that your employer may have elected under the Plan) or $58,000.

For any Plan Year in which you contribute both Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals and Roth Elective Deferrals to the Plan, if it becomes necessary to make a corrective distribution of a portion of your Elective Deferrals to you to meet any of the above requirements, Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals will be returned before Roth Elective Deferrals. Any In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions made during the Plan Year will be used to make corrective distributions, as necessary, but shall be distributed or forfeited last.

DOES THE PLAN ALLOW “CATCH-UP” CONTRIBUTIONS?

While there are limitations to the amount of Elective Deferrals you can contribute, you will be permitted to exceed those limits if you are eligible to make a “catch-up” contribution. Catch-up contributions are contributions that exceed either a statutory limit (such as the annual limit described above on the annual dollar amount of Elective Deferrals you can contribute to your account - $19,500 for 2021), your Plan’s limit on the amount of Elective Deferrals you can contribute to your account, or any restrictions on contributions for certain higher paid employees that may be necessary as a result of certain tests.

If you are eligible to participate in the Plan and are projected to reach age 50 during a calendar year, you will be eligible to make a catch-up contribution at any time during that calendar year – you do not need to wait until your birthday. (There are special eligibility rules for collectively bargained (union) employees, however, that may delay the availability of catch-up contributions for these employees. If you are a union employee, you should confirm with your Plan’s administrator when you will be eligible to make catch-up contributions to the Plan.)

If you are eligible to make catch-up contributions, you should contact your Plan’s administrator to learn whether you need to take any special steps to make catch-up contributions under your Plan. If you wish to arrange to make catch-up contributions in excess of your Plan’s limit on contributions, you will not be able to do so through either the ADP Voice Response System or the Participant Website; instead, you will have to arrange this through your Plan’s administrator.

For 2021, the limit on catch-up contributions is $6,500. After 2021, this limit will be adjusted for inflation.

WHAT DOES VESTING MEAN?

Vesting is your right to the contributions in your total Account Balance. In other words, to be vested refers to that portion of your Account Balance that is yours and which cannot be forfeited. Upon termination of Employment, you are entitled to the entire vested portion of your Account Balance.

You are always 100% fully vested in your Elective Deferral , Rollover (if any) Contribution Accounts.

In some circumstances, the Company may need to make special contributions on your behalf called Qualified Matching Contributions or Qualified Nonelective Contributions. If made, you are always 100% vested in these contribution accounts.

If you terminate Employment due to death, Disability (defined later in this booklet) or attainment of age 65, the Plan's Normal Retirement Age, you will also be 100% fully vested in your total Account Balance.

If you leave the Company for any other reason, you will be vested in your Matching Contributions and your Nonelective Contributions Account according to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Vested %
Less than 2 years	0%
At least 2 years, but less than 3	20%
At least 3 years, but less than 4	40%
At least 4 years, but less than 5	60%
At least 5 years, but less than 6	80%
6 Years or more	100%

If you have employer contributions (other than those discussed above) that were contributed to your account before your Plan converted to the ADP recordkeeping system, these contributions may be vesting on a different vesting schedule. Please consult your Plan administrator if you have any questions.

Your Years of Service for vesting are counted from your date of hire. For vesting, you will be credited with a Year of Service for each 12-month period beginning on your date of hire and ending on your last day of Employment with the Company and its affiliated companies, if any.

If you terminate employment and are rehired within the next 12 months, your period of absence will be included in determining your service for vesting purposes. If you are temporarily absent from service for a reason other than termination of employment, a period of up to 12 months will be counted in determining your service for vesting purposes. If you are absent from service for a reason other than termination, subsequently terminate and are then rehired within 12 months of your termination date, the period from your termination to the date you are rehired will count as vesting service. If you are in qualified military service, that military service will be considered service for vesting purposes to the extent required by federal law.

You will not be credited with vesting service during a Period of Severance. A Period of Severance usually occurs because you have terminated employment. If your employment is terminated and you are not rehired within the 12 consecutive months beginning on your date of termination, you will incur a 1-year Period of Severance. Each 12 consecutive months thereafter is considered another 1-year Period of Severance. If you are on a leave of absence for maternity or paternity reasons, you will not be considered to have begun a Period of Severance until the second anniversary of the first date of your leave if you have not returned to employment. The first 12 months of a maternity/paternity leave count as vesting service. The next 12 months neither count as service toward vesting nor as a Period of Severance.

If you terminate employment and are later rehired, your pre-termination service, including partial years, will always count in determining your vesting in any Employer contributions made on your behalf after you are rehired. However, if you are rehired after a five-year Period of Severance, your service after you are rehired will not count in determining your vesting in the Employer contributions that were made on your behalf before you first terminated.

CAN I FORFEIT ANY PORTION OF MY ACCOUNT?

If you terminate employment before becoming 100% vested in your account balance but do not take a distribution from the Plan, the non-vested portion of your account balance will be forfeited as of the date you have a five-year Period of Severance.

If you terminate employment before becoming 100% vested in your account balance and receive a distribution of the vested portion of your account, the non-vested portion of your account will be forfeited when you take your distribution. (Participants who terminate employment with a 0% vested percentage are deemed to take a distribution when they terminate.) If you are rehired as an employee eligible to participate in the Plan, however, the forfeited amount will be restored to your account if you repay the entire amount previously distributed to you within five years of your reemployment or, if earlier, before you incur a five-year Period of Severance. If you do not repay the distribution - or if you are rehired after you have incurred a five-year Period of Severance, the forfeited portion of your account balance will remain forfeited and will not be restored. You should consult with your Plan's administrator if you are rehired and interested in repaying the portion of your account balance previously distributed to you.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I BECOME PERMANENTLY DISABLED?

If you become Disabled under the Plan while you were employed by the Employer, you become 100% vested in all your total Account Balance. You are considered to have a Disability when you become eligible for disability benefits under the Social Security Act.

HOW ARE CONTRIBUTIONS INVESTED?

Amounts contributed to the Plan are held in a trust created under the Plan. Except as described under Question "What Happens if I Do Not Elect to Participate in the Plan and Do Not Specifically Decline to Enroll," contributions allocated to your account are invested according to your direction. Each of the investment funds that are offered has different investment objectives. The Administrative Committee has provided you with a description of each of these investment funds. Contact the Administrative Committee if you have questions regarding the different investments offered in the Plan.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

At any time, you can request that changes be made to your Elective Deferrals. The following requests for changes to Elective Deferrals made by 4:00 p.m. ET on a business day will be effective as of the next available payroll after your request is received:

- Increase or decrease the amount of your contribution;
- Suspend your contributions by changing your contributions to 0%; or
- Resume your contributions after you suspended your Elective Deferrals.

The following requests for changes that are received by 4:00 p.m. ET on a business day will be in effect the next business day:

- The investment of your future contributions; or
- Reallocate/transfer your current Account Balance.

WILL I RECEIVE A STATEMENT OF MY ACCOUNT?

You will receive a quarterly statement that shows the activity in your account for the calendar quarter, including contributions and investment earnings.

HOW IS THE VALUE OF MY ACCOUNT DETERMINED?

The value of your Account Balance can change depending on several factors, which include:

- (a) Contributions that are made to the account;
- (b) Increases or decreases in the market value of investments;
- (c) Cost of investment management expenses, transactional costs and service charges (contact the administrator at the Company for information on these expenses, transactional costs and service charges, if any) ; and
- (d) Loans and loan repayments.

All investments involve some risk. Thus, the value of the different investments may go down as well as up and the value of your account will vary accordingly. The statement of your account will reflect all transactions affecting the value of your account.

WHEN CAN I RECEIVE PLAN BENEFITS?

Benefits are payable to you after you leave the Company for any reason (retirement, termination, Disability or death):

- If a mandatory distribution is being made to you because your vested interest in the Plan is $5,000* or less, then the Plan will rollover your distribution to an IRA if you do not make an affirmative election to either receive or roll over the distribution. The IRA provider selected by the Plan will invest the rollover funds in a type of investment designed to preserve principal and provide a reasonable rate of return and liquidity (e.g., an interest-bearing account, a certificate of deposit or a money market fund). The IRA provider will charge your account for any expenses associated with the establishment and maintenance of the IRA and with the IRA investments unless, if permitted by the IRA provider, you request to pay the fees out-of-pocket. You may transfer the IRA funds to any other IRA you choose. You will be provided with details regarding the IRA at the time you are entitled to a distribution. However, you may contact the Administrator at the address and telephone number indicated in this SPD for further information regarding the Plan's automatic rollover provisions, the IRA provider, and the fees and expenses associated with the IRA.

*Note: If you use Merrill Lynch, amounts less than or equal to $1,000 will not be rolled over to an IRA but will be distributed as a cash lump sum distribution.

- If your Account Balance (excluding any rollover contribution account but including any outstanding loan balance account other than an In-Plan Roth Rollover Sub-account) is greater than $5,000 as of the applicable Valuation Date as provided under the Plan, in addition to either a lump sum or direct rollover, you may choose to receive installments, request a partial withdrawal, or defer receiving payments until age 70½. If you choose to defer payments, your account will continue to be invested the way you direct and will be adjusted for any gains or losses which occur. If you elect a partial withdrawal, you may elect to limit the source of your partial withdrawal to your (i) Rollover Contribution and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts (including any In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account); and/or (ii) Roth Elective Deferral and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts (including any In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account) If you elect a partial withdrawal, you may elect to limit the source of your partial withdrawal to your (i) Rollover Contribution and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts; and/or (ii) Roth Elective Deferral and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts (including any In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account).
- Effective as of the date your plan is converted to the ADP recordkeeping system distributions are only permitted in cash. Any other noncash form of distribution that may have been available under the terms of the plan prior to the date your plan is converted to the ADP recordkeeping system are not available.
- In the event of your death before termination of Employment and before distribution of your benefits has begun, you will be 100% vested. Upon your death, your vested Account Balance will be payable in a single lump sum to your beneficiary. If your beneficiary is your surviving spouse, he or she may elect to roll over a lump sum distribution to another qualified plan or IRA. Any portion of a lump sum distribution attributable to Roth Elective Deferrals or Roth Rollover (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) may only be rolled over by a surviving spouse to a qualified plan that accepts Roth contributions or to a Roth IRA. A non-spouse beneficiary may elect a direct rollover of a lump sum distribution to an IRA in accordance with and to the extent permitted under guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service. Any portion of a lump sum distribution attributable to Roth Elective Deferrals or Roth Rollover Contributions (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) may only be rolled over by a non-spouse beneficiary to a Roth IRA. Beneficiaries eligible to establish a Roth IRA may also elect a direct rollover of the non-Roth portion of a lump sum distribution to a Roth IRA, in accordance with and to the extent permitted under guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan's administrator is not responsible for determining eligibility to elect a direct rollover of non-Roth amounts to a Roth IRA. Please see the section of this SPD entitled "How Are My Distributions From the Plan Taxed" for further important information about direct rollovers to a Roth IRA of the non-Roth portion of a lump sum distribution. If you are not married, you may name anyone as your beneficiary, or change your beneficiary at any time on a form provided for that purpose. If you are married, you must name your spouse as beneficiary unless your spouse consents to the selection of someone else. Unless otherwise elected, the beneficiary will be your spouse or, if you have no surviving spouse, your descendants, or if you have no surviving descendants, your beneficiary will be your estate.

- If you continue working for the Company after age 70½ and you are a more than 5% owner, you must begin to receive your benefits by April 1 following the year in which you reach age 70½, even if you are still employed at the time. If you are not a 5% owner, you must begin to receive your benefits by April 1 following the later of the year in which you reach age 70½ or terminate Employment.

HOW ARE MY DISTRIBUTIONS FROM THE PLAN TAXED?

Distributions from this Plan that are received by you or your beneficiary are subject to current income taxes. However, under certain circumstances, such as a distribution to your spouse as your beneficiary, the income taxes on Plan distributions may be postponed or reduced. You will receive additional information about distributions from the Plan at the time you or your beneficiary is entitled to receive a benefit.

Distribution rules provide that any part of a distribution (including after-tax contributions) from a qualified plan (such as this Plan) can be rolled over to an eligible retirement plan. "Eligible retirement plans" to which a distribution may be rolled over include another employer's tax-qualified retirement plan; a §403(a) qualified annuity plan; a governmental §457 plan; a §403(b) tax-sheltered annuity; or an IRA. Note: After-tax contributions may only be rolled over to a qualified defined contribution plan or an individual retirement account or annuity that agrees to separately account for those contributions. Rollovers of after-tax contributions, if any, to an employer's qualified plan or §403(b) annuity must be transferred directly to the receiving plan (a "direct rollover"). Any part of a distribution attributable to Roth Elective Deferrals or Roth Rollover Contributions (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) may only be rolled over to a Roth IRA or to an employer's 401(k) plan or 403(b) plan that provides for Roth contributions. It is your responsibility to confirm that the plan to which you intend to roll over your distribution will accept the rollover from this Plan. Certain types of distributions are not eligible to be rolled over. These include distributions that are one of a series of substantially equal payments made over the life (or joint life expectancies) of the participant and his or her beneficiary, or over a specified period of 10 years or more, hardship withdrawals or a minimum required distribution under the Internal Revenue Code.

You are permitted to elect to have any distribution that is eligible for rollover treatment transferred directly to an eligible retirement plan (a “direct rollover” or “direct transfer”). You will receive a written explanation of your distribution options within a reasonable period of time before receiving a distribution that is eligible to be rolled over.

If you elect to have your benefit transferred as a direct rollover to an eligible retirement plan, then you must provide the administrator at your Company, in a timely manner, with information regarding the transferee plan. The administrator at your Company is entitled to reasonably rely on the information that you provide to him or her, and will not independently verify it.

Federal income tax withholding at a rate of 20% is required on any taxable distribution that is eligible to be rolled over but is not transferred directly to an eligible retirement plan. You cannot elect to forego withholding on these distributions. The only exception to this requirement is if your vested benefit is less than $200. Such amounts may also be subject to a 10% penalty tax if they are distributed before you attain age 59-1/2, but this amount is not withheld from a distribution. Mandatory 20% federal income tax withholding also applies to any eligible rollover distribution to your surviving spouse or non-spouse beneficiary that is not directly rolled over.

If you elect a direct rollover of the non-Roth portion of your benefit to a traditional IRA, your direct rollover will not be subject to federal income tax withholding at the time of the transfer.

If you wish to elect a direct rollover of the non-Roth portion of your benefit to a Roth IRA, please note that any such direct rollover to a Roth IRA must be included in gross income, but is not subject to 10% excise tax for premature distributions. If a participant, beneficiary or alternate payee elects a direct rollover of the non-Roth portion of a distribution to a Roth IRA, no amount will be withheld from the direct rollover for federal income tax purposes. CAUTION: This means that a participant, beneficiary, or alternate payee making this election will be responsible for making sure he/she is able to pay the full amount of all required income taxes in connection with such a direct rollover. For this reason, participants, beneficiaries and alternate payees considering a direct rollover of non-Roth amounts to a Roth IRA are strongly encouraged to consult their tax advisor before making this election. If this Plan generally permits distribution and in-service withdrawal elections to be made on-line, please note that you may need to complete a paper form to make this particular election. Please contact your Plan’s administrator for further information.

Roth Elective Deferrals are subject to federal income taxes in the year of deferral (or in the case of In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, the year the rollover contribution is made), but the deferrals and, as long as the distribution is “qualified”, the earnings on the deferrals are not subject to federal income taxes when distributed to you. In order for the earnings on Roth Elective Deferrals and Roth Rollover Contributions (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) to be distributed tax-free, any distribution from your Roth Elective Deferral or Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-Account, if any) must be a “qualified” distribution. In order to be a qualified distribution, the distribution must occur after one of the following: (1) your attainment of age 59½, (2) your disability (please note that “disability” for this purpose has a special meaning, as discussed below), or (3) your death. In addition, the distribution must occur after the expiration of a 5-year participation period. The 5-year participation period is the 5-year period beginning on the calendar year in which you first make a Roth Elective Deferral contribution or In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution to our Plan (or to another 401(k) Plan or 403(b) plan if such amount was rolled over into our Plan) and ending on the last day of the calendar year that is 5 years later. For example, if you make your first Roth Elective Deferral under this Plan on November 30, 2007, your 5-year participation period will end on December 31, 2011. If you made your first Roth Elective Deferral under another eligible retirement plan on September 1, 2006, and later make a Roth Rollover Contribution from that plan to this Plan, your 5-year participation period for all Roth Elective Deferrals in this Plan (whether contributed directly to this Plan or contributed as a Roth Rollover Contribution) will end on December 31, 2010. It is not necessary that you make a Roth Elective Deferral in each of the five years of your participation period. In the event that all or any portion of your Account Balance is distributed to a death beneficiary or an alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, the event and 5-year participation rule generally are determined by your situation (i.e., whether you would have met the requirements for a qualified distribution), not the situation of the person receiving the distribution.

As noted above, the term “disability” has a special meaning for purposes of whether a distribution of Roth Elective Deferrals or Roth Rollover Contributions (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) and earnings on account of disability is a qualified distribution. For this purpose only, “disability” means that you are unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in your death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration. This definition may not be the same as the Plan’s definition of Disability for other purposes under the Plan (for example, when your account becomes fully vested because of a Disability). If you request a qualified distribution of Roth Elective Deferrals and earnings on the grounds that you are disabled, you may be required to furnish proof to the Administrator that you meet the definition of disability for purposes of a qualified distribution.

If a distribution from your Roth Elective Deferral or Roth Rollover Contribution accounts (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-Account, if any) is not a qualified distribution, the earnings distributed with the Roth Elective Deferrals and Roth Rollover Contributions (including In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions, if any) will be taxable to you at the time of distribution (unless you roll over the distribution to a Roth IRA or to another 401(k) plan or 403(b) plan that accepts Roth contributions). In addition, in some cases, there may be a 10% additional tax for early distributions on the earnings that are distributed. If you take a distribution from your In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution account within the 5-year period that begins on the January 1 of the taxable year in which the In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution was made and ends on the last day of such 5th taxable year, amounts that were not subject to the 10% additional tax on early distributions at the time you made the In Plan Roth Rollover Contribution may become subject to the tax.

You may want to consult with a professional tax advisor before you take a distribution of your benefits from the Plan. You may want to discuss other alternative methods available to you to defer the payment of taxes as well as applicable federal, state and/or local tax rules that may affect your distribution.

MAY I WITHDRAW FUNDS WHILE STILL EMPLOYED?

You may withdraw all or part of your vested Account Balance once you reach age 59½ . You may elect to limit the source of such a withdrawal to your Roth Elective Deferral and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts (including any In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account) to the extent the amount in the Sub-account is otherwise distributable. You may also withdraw any or part of your Rollover Contributions Account including any Roth Rollover Contributions Account and In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account to the extent the amount in the Sub-account is otherwise distributable in the Plan, as well as any After-Tax Contributions that may be held in your account in the Plan at any time and at any age. If you were a participant in the Plan prior to the date the Plan was converted to the ADP recordkeeping system, or in a plan that was merged into the Plan, please contact your Plan administrator or refer to the SPD that was in effect prior to the date the Plan was converted to the ADP recordkeeping system for information on any additional in-service distribution rights that may be available to you. See the section entitled “How are my distributions from the Plan taxed?” for important information regarding how distributions from your Roth Elective Deferral and Roth Rollover Contribution Accounts and In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account are taxed.

In the event of a financial hardship you may withdraw your Elective Deferrals as well as any vested Matching Contributions or Nonelective Contributions.

To make a hardship withdrawal under current Internal Revenue Service rules, you must be able to show that you are suffering an immediate and heavy financial hardship and you must certify that you have insufficient cash or other liquid assets reasonably available to meet your financial hardship. You must take any non-hardship in-service withdrawals that may be available to you under the Plan before you may obtain a hardship withdrawal.

Circumstances that qualify as an immediate and heavy financial hardship are:

- (a) Expenses for medical care (described in Section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code) previously incurred by you, your spouse, your dependent or your primary beneficiary under the Plan or necessary for you, your spouse, dependent or your primary beneficiary under the Plan to obtain medical care;
- (b) Costs directly related to the purchase of your principal residence (excluding mortgage payments);
- (c) Tuition, related educational fees, and room and board expenses for the next twelve (12) months of post-secondary education for yourself, your spouse or dependent or your primary beneficiary under the Plan;
- (d) Amounts necessary to prevent your eviction from your principal residence or foreclosure on the mortgage of your principal residence;
- (e) Payments for burial or funeral expenses for your deceased parent, spouse, children or other dependents or your primary beneficiary under the Plan; or
- (f) Expenses for the repair of damage to your principal residence that would qualify for the casualty deduction under the Internal Revenue Code (determined without regard to whether the loss exceeds 10% of adjusted gross income).

- (g) Expenses and losses (including loss of income) incurred by you on account of a disaster declared by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), provided that your principal residence or principal place of employment at the time of the disaster was located in an area designated by FEMA for individual assistance with respect to the disaster.

For this purpose, a “primary beneficiary under the Plan” is an individual who is named as your beneficiary under the Plan and has an unconditional right to all or a portion of your account balance if you die. In addition, the amount of your hardship withdrawal must be no more than the amount necessary to satisfy your immediate and heavy financial need, plus any income taxes or penalties which are expected to result from the distribution. The minimum permitted hardship withdrawal is $500.

As previously explained, a hardship withdrawal is not considered to be an eligible rollover distribution by the IRS. The hardship withdrawal may be subject to a 10% excise tax imposed by the IRS.

If you are a qualified member of the reserves, you also may be eligible to request a qualified reservist distribution. A qualified reservist distribution is an exception to Plan restrictions on withdrawal of elective deferrals. Further, the extra 10% tax on a payout before age 59½ does not apply to a qualified reservist distribution. A qualified reservist distribution from the Plan is:

- attributable to Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals,
- available to a person who because he or she is a member of a reserve component was ordered or called to active duty for more than 179 days (or for an indefinite period), and
- made during the period that began or begins on the date of the order or call to duty and ended or ends at the close of the active-duty period.

A person who receives or received a qualified reservist distribution may, during the two-year period that begins on the day after the end of his or her active-duty period, contribute to an IRA an amount up to the amount of the qualified reservist distribution. Although the limits on IRA contributions don't apply to this special contribution, no deduction is allowed for it. This provision applies to a person ordered or called to active duty after September 11, 2001 and applies to a distribution after September 11, 2001.

HOW DO LOANS WORK?

Loans will be made on a uniform and non-discriminatory basis. Sole proprietors, partners and certain shareholder/employees that were excluded from taking a plan loan under prior law prior to 2002 are eligible to take a loan from the Plan.

The minimum loan is $500. You can have up to 02 active loans at one time, only one of which may be a primary residence loan.

A new loan (if any), when added to the outstanding balance of all other loans from the Plan, will be limited to 50% of your vested Account Balance to a maximum of $50,000. However, the $50,000 amount in the preceding sentence is reduced by the excess of your highest outstanding balance of loans from the Plan during the one-year period ending on the day before the date of the new loan, over your current outstanding balance of loans as of the date of the new loan.

Loans must be fully repaid through payroll deductions within 5 years unless the loan is used for the purchase of your primary residence. Loans used to purchase your primary residence may be repaid within a period of no more than 30 years. You may prepay an outstanding loan in full, by certified check, at any time.

The interest rate for a loan will be the rate in effect in the month your loan is effective. The interest rate is the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal on the 14th of each month, plus two percentage points. This interest rate is effective for any loan processed as of the 16th day of the month.

When you take a loan from the Plan, your repayment of the loan is secured by your Account Balance. If you terminate Employment, any remaining payments are due immediately unless you are a party in interest. If you qualify as a party in interest you may continue to repay your loan after termination of Employment. If you do not repay the loan, the outstanding loan balance will be included in your gross income for federal income tax purposes as if it were distributed to you. If you die with an outstanding loan balance, your death will cause your loan to be in default, and your outstanding loan balance will be regarded as if it were distributed to you.

If you enter into a period of military leave, your loan repayments will be suspended for the duration of your leave. If you enter into a leave of absence without pay, or at a rate of pay (after employment and income tax withholding) that is less than your required loan installments, your loan repayment obligation will be suspended for up to one year (or until the date your final loan payment is due, if earlier). If you do not resume repayments within any administrative grace period provided under the ADP Prototype Program after you return from a leave of absence (or when the suspension of your repayment obligation ends, if earlier, as explained in this paragraph), your loan will be in default and will be included in your gross income for federal income tax purposes as if it were distributed to you.

IF I RECEIVED A DISTRIBUTION FROM ANOTHER ELIGIBLE RETIREMENT PLAN, MAY I CONTRIBUTE THAT AMOUNT TO THE PLAN?

Yes. You may make a Rollover Contribution of benefits, in cash (exclusive of any outstanding notes on plan loans), from an “eligible retirement plan” to this Plan. You may not make a Rollover Contribution to the Plan that includes any voluntary nondeductible, i.e., “after-tax” contributions.

You may make a Rollover Contribution of non-Roth assets to this Plan from the following types of eligible retirement plans:

- a traditional IRA (rollovers from IRAs are limited to taxable distributions, i.e., your non-taxable IRA contributions plus earnings on any of your IRA contributions whether taxable or not);
- a SIMPLE IRA (as long as the SIMPLE IRA has been in existence for at least two years at the time of the distribution);
- an employer's qualified plan;
- a §403(a) qualified annuity plan;
- a governmental §457 plan; or
- a §403(b) tax-sheltered annuity.

In addition, you may make a "Roth rollover contribution" to the Plan. Roth rollover contributions will be recorded in a separate account called a Roth rollover account. A Roth rollover contribution is a rollover contribution that consists of Roth 401(k) deferrals and earnings that you roll over to this Plan from another eligible retirement plan in which you have participated. A Roth rollover contribution to this Plan must be in the form of a direct rollover to this Plan from the other eligible retirement plan. If you are interested in making a Roth rollover contribution to this Plan, please contact the Administrator beforehand.

You may request a direct transfer of your account in an eligible retirement plan or you may be able to roll over a distribution which was tax deferred (i.e., does not include any "after-tax" contributions), but with respect to a rollover you must do so within 60 days of receiving a distribution from the other plan.

MAY I MAKE IN-PLAN ROTH ROLLOVER CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PLAN?

The Plan provides for In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions. This provision allows eligible participants to make an irrevocable election to rollover some or all of certain accounts in the Plan to a Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account under the Plan as described in this Section.

If you are a participant, an alternate payee that is a spouse or former spouse, or a spousal beneficiary of participant, and you are entitled to receive an eligible rollover distribution, you may elect to roll over certain non-Roth portions of such distribution within the Plan to an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account under the Plan.

Only amounts that are available for distribution or withdrawal that are an eligible rollover distribution under the terms of the Plan at the time of the election are eligible for an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution. (Thus, if you are still employed by the Company or an affiliate, you may not make an In Plan Roth Rollover Contributions before attaining age 59-1/2 (prior to age 62 with respect to an account attributable to amounts transferred into the Plan from a money purchase pension plan or target benefit plan, as applicable). Please refer to the Section entitled "May I Withdraw Funds While Still Employed?" for further information.

You may roll over directly to an In Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account from any Account you have in the Plan other than an After-Tax Account, Roth Elective Deferral Account or Roth Rollover Contribution Account.

Outstanding loans may not be included in an In Plan Roth Rollover Contribution. You may only roll over the distribution directly (within the Plan). Your election to make an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution cannot be changed once it is processed. An election is considered processed when the Plan Administrator approves the request form and forwards it to ADP for processing.

If you make an In Plan Roth Rollover Contribution, the contribution will be subject to taxation to the extent the distribution does not represent basis in the taxable year in which the distribution occurs. (If you made an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution during 2010, however, under a special rule, your In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution was taxable half in 2011 and half in 2012, unless you elected to have the entire rollover contribution taxed in 2010 or another special income tax acceleration rule applied. Please consult with your tax or legal adviser on the applicability of this rule to your situation.)

No tax will be withheld from the In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution – you are responsible for making sure that sufficient tax is withheld on your gross income.

The In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution Sub-account is generally subject to the same taxation rules that apply to Roth Elective Deferrals.

In-Plan Roth Rollover Contributions are not subject to the 10% additional tax on early distributions (unless you receive a distribution of such rollover contribution within the 5-year period that begins on the January 1 of the taxable year in which the rollover contribution was made and ends on the last day of such 5th taxable year).

If you are married, you do not need spousal consent to elect an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution.

Only vested amounts may be rolled over in an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution.

Your eligible account balances that are subject to the In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution will be transferred to the same investments options in which you were invested immediately prior to the transfer.

CAUTION: If you elect an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution, you will be responsible for making sure you are able to pay the full amount of all required income taxes in connection with such a rollover. For this reason, participants, beneficiaries and alternate payees considering an In-Plan Roth Rollover Contribution are strongly encouraged to consult their tax advisor before making this election.

WHAT ARE THE TOP-HEAVY PROVISIONS?

A top-heavy plan is a plan in which more than 60% of the combined Account Balances held under the Plan belong to "key employees". Key employees are generally officers, shareholders, and owners who earn above a certain compensation level and/or own more than a specified interest in the Company. If the Plan becomes top-heavy under applicable Internal Revenue Service rules, the Plan would be required to provide for minimum contributions and top-heavy vesting. The minimum contribution is generally a contribution by the Company allocated to all non-Key Employees who are eligible Participants employed on the last day of the Plan Year equal to 3% of their eligible earnings (without regard to any exclusions from eligible earnings that your employer may have elected under the Plan) unless all key employees receive a contribution of less than 3% of their eligible earnings. The amount you contribute to the Plan as an Elective Deferral is not included in calculating the 3% minimum contribution which may be required but is included in determining the contribution made on behalf of key employees. The 3% allocation will be made under this Plan or may be made under another defined contribution plan if the Company maintains one. Please note that if the Company maintains a defined benefit plan in which a participant also participates in addition to this Plan, the minimum contribution is 5%. In this case, the minimum contribution will be satisfied by providing for an accrued benefit under the defined benefit plan or by making the 5% contribution either to this Plan or to another defined contribution plan maintained by the Company. For more information on how a top-heavy contribution, if any, will be satisfied under the Plan, please contact the Plan's administrator.

WHAT ADMINISTRATIVE FEES MAY BE CHARGED TO YOUR PLAN ACCOUNT, AND HOW ARE THEY ASSESSED?

Plan administrative services, such as legal, consulting, audit, accounting, trustee, and recordkeeping services, may be required to administer our Plan. The cost for these services may be paid by the Company or from the Plan, or both. The actual fees deducted from your Account, if any, will be reflected on your quarterly account statement and on the Plan's Participant Website. For information about Plan administrative expenses and how they may be assessed, please refer to the "Plan Administrative Expenses" section of the Participant Fee Disclosure Statement, which is provided to you separately and incorporated herein by reference.

Administrative fees for certain services or transactions you request may be charged directly to your Account. For information about these charges, please refer to the "Individual Expenses" section of the Participant Fee Disclosure Statement, which is provided to you separately and incorporated herein by reference. If you request or receive a distribution of all or a portion of your Account Balance (whether in-service or following the date you leave the Company) or a plan loan, administrative fees for the processing of these transactions that are charged directly against your Account will be taken pro-rata from all of the mutual funds and collective investment funds in which your Account Balance is invested at the time the fees are taken from your account. The fees will not reduce the proceeds of the transaction requested (other than upon a complete distribution of your Account Balance).

WHAT FEES ARE CHARGED BY THE INVESTMENT FUNDS HELD IN YOUR ACCOUNT?

The investments in the Plan do not charge you commissions or sales loads for purchasing shares or investment units with your Plan account. Many of the investment funds available under the Plan do, however, pay fees and incur expenses that will most likely have an impact on your account balance.

These investment fees and other expenses may reduce the returns generated by investment funds in which you invest. For example, investment options (such as mutual funds) pay an investment manager a fee for the management of the fund. In addition, some of the investment options pay “asset-based” fees (that is, fees based on the total assets invested in the fund) to various service providers, which may include the Plan’s recordkeeper, for other investment and administrative services provided to the investment fund. In addition, certain funds may assess shareholder-type charges, such as a redemption fee when shares are sold, if they are not held for a minimum specified period). For more information about the fees charged or paid by various investment options, please review the investment fund prospectus, or if the investment option does not have a prospectus, the information provided to you about the option, such as a Fund Fact Sheet. These documents, and other information about these fees, can be found on the Participant Website or by contacting your Plan administrator. Information about investment fund expenses and shareholder-type charges may also be found in the “Comparative Chart” section of the Participant Fee Disclosure Statement, which is provided to you separately and incorporated herein by reference.

A. BENEFIT CLAIMS PROCEDURES

Under the Plan, you generally will receive your benefit as a matter of course. However, in certain cases, you or your beneficiary may wish to request Plan benefits that you believe you are entitled to (all references herein to “you” shall include your beneficiaries). Any such request must be made by you or your authorized representative in writing, and it should be filed with the Administrative Committee. If you or your authorized representative file a claim under the Plan, you will be referred to as the "Claimant". Note: If your Plan is subject to a collective bargaining agreement and the agreement contains certain provisions, then the procedures for resolution of claims set forth in that collective bargaining agreement will take the place of this claims procedure as permitted by Department of Labor regulations. Please contact your Plan administrator if you have questions regarding whether a collective bargaining agreement’s claims procedures apply to you.

General Claims Procedures

If the Claimant's claim is denied in whole or in part, the Administrative Committee will provide a written notice of denial to the Claimant or the Claimant’s authorized representative within a reasonable period of time, but no later than 90 days after the Administrative Committee receives the claim. The 90-day period will begin to run once a claim is filed, without regard to whether the Claimant has provided all the information necessary to make the benefit determination. If the Administrative Committee determines that special circumstances require an extension beyond the initial 90-day period, the Administrative Committee will notify the Claimant or the Claimant’s authorized representative in writing of the special circumstances that make the extension necessary and the date by which a decision may be expected before the end of the initial 90-day period. Any such extension may not exceed 90 days from the end of the initial 90-day period.

The Administrative Committee’s notice of denial will explain the reason for the denial, refer to the specific Plan provisions on which the denial is based, describe any additional information or material needed from the Claimant to perfect his or her claim and why this information or material is necessary, and describe the Plan's claims review procedures and time limits.

Within 60 days after receiving the notice of denial, the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative may submit a written appeal of the denial to the Administrative Committee. The Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative may, free of charge, review and request copies of relevant documents, records, and other information relevant to the claim. The Claimant's appeal may include written comments, documents, records, and other information relating to the claim, regardless of whether the information was submitted or considered as part of the Claimant's initial claim for benefits.

The Administrative Committee will review the appeal and make a determination within a reasonable period of time, but no more than 60 days after the Administrative Committee receives the appeal. If the Administrative Committee determines that special circumstances require an extension, the Administrative Committee will notify the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative in writing of the special circumstances that make the extension necessary and the date by which a decision may be expected before the end of the initial 60-day period. Any such extension may not exceed 60 days from the end of the initial review period.

The Administrative Committee will provide a written determination on appeal which will explain the reasons for the decision, refer to the provisions of the Plan on which the decision is based, and inform the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative of any additional rights the Claimant may have. The determination on appeal by the Administrative Committee is the final determination under this claims procedure.

Disability Claims Procedures

If the Claimant's claim for benefits involves a disability determination and the Plan defines disability in a manner that requires the Plan to determine if the Claimant is disabled, the special claims procedures set forth below will apply. If, however, the Plan defines disability by reference to a determination of disability made by the Social Security Administration or pursuant to the Employer's long term disability plan, then the General Claims procedures described above will apply.

If the Claimant's claim is denied in whole or in part, the Administrative Committee will notify the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative within a reasonable period of time, but no later than 45 days after the Administrative Committee receives the claim. The 45-day period will begin to run once a claim is filed, without regard to whether the Claimant has provided all the information necessary to make the benefit determination. If the Administrative Committee determines that an extension is needed for reasons beyond the Administrative Committee's control, it may take up to two 30-day extensions for consideration of the claim. If the Administrative Committee takes an extension, the Administrative Committee will notify the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative in writing of the reason for the extension and the date by which a decision is expected before the end of the initial 45 day period (or, for a second extension, before the end of the first extension). The notice of extension will include an explanation of the standards on which the entitlement to the benefit claimed is based, the unresolved issues that are preventing a decision, and the additional information needed to resolve the issues. If the Administrative Committee requests additional information, the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative will have at least 45 days after receipt of the notice of extension to provide the information. The period during which the Administrative Committee waits for the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative to respond to the request for information will not count against the 30-day extension period (i.e. the 30-day extension period will be tolled from the date the notice of extension is sent to the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative to the date on which the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative responds to the request for additional information).

The Administrative Committee's notice of denial will explain the reason for the denial, refer to the specific Plan provisions on which the denial is based, describe any additional information or material needed from the Claimant to perfect his or her claim and why this information or material is necessary, and describe the Plan's claims review procedures and time limits. Additionally, if the Administrative Committee relies on an internal rule, guideline, or protocol in denying the claim, it will either provide a copy of the rule, guideline or protocol, or indicate that a rule, guideline or protocol was relied upon and is available free of charge to the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative on request.

Within 180 days after receiving the notice of denial, the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative may submit a written appeal of the denial. The Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative may review and request copies of relevant documents, records, and other information relevant to the claim free of charge. Further, upon request by the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative, the identity of any medical or vocational expert whose advice was obtained in connection with the claim will be disclosed, regardless of whether his or her advice was relied upon in making the determination. The Claimant's appeal may include written comments, documents, records, and other information relating to the claim, regardless of whether it was submitted or considered as part of the initial application.

The Claimant's appeal will be reviewed by an appropriate Plan fiduciary (the "Reviewing Fiduciary") who is neither a member nor a subordinate of the Administrative Committee or its members. The Administrative Committee's initial decision shall not be given any deference. If the initial decision was based in whole or in part on a medical judgment, the Reviewing Fiduciary will consult with a health care professional with appropriate training and experience in the medical field involved. The Reviewing Fiduciary will not consult with a health care professional who was consulted in connection with the initial review of the claim or a subordinate of any such professional.

The Reviewing Fiduciary will review the appeal and make a determination within a reasonable period of time, but no more than 45 days after the Reviewing Fiduciary receives the appeal. If the Reviewing Fiduciary determines that special circumstances require an extension, it will notify the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative in writing of the special circumstances and the date by which a decision may be expected before the end of the initial 45-day period. Any such extension may not exceed 45 days from the end of the initial review period.

The Reviewing Fiduciary will provide a written determination on appeal which will explain the reasons for the decision, refer to the provisions of the Plan on which the decision is based, and inform the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative of any additional rights the Claimant may have. If the Reviewing Fiduciary relies on an internal rule, guideline, or protocol in denying the claim, the Reviewing Fiduciary will either provide a copy of the rule, guideline or protocol, or indicate that a rule, guideline or protocol was relied upon and is available free of charge to the Claimant or the Claimant's authorized representative on request. The determination on appeal by the Reviewing Fiduciary is the final determination under this claims procedure.

B. PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION

The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation does not insure benefits under the Plan. The reason is that plans that provide for individual accounts, such as the Plan, are excluded under the ERISA provisions that provide for such insurance coverage.

C. INVESTMENT INFORMATION

The Plan is called "an individual account plan". This means that you and all other participants have their own account in the Plan. The Plan is intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 404(c) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and Department of Labor Regulation Section 2550.404c-1 (29 C.F.R. 2550.404c-1). An ERISA Section 404(c) plan is an individual account plan which is designed to provide you with the opportunity to exercise control over the assets in your individual account, and also provides you with the opportunity to choose, from among a range of investment funds, the manner in which the assets in your account are invested. This means that you will have the responsibility for the investment decisions you make and the Plan's fiduciaries may be relieved of any liability to you under ERISA for any investment losses that are the direct and necessary result of your investment instructions.

Please note that your ability to direct the investment of your Plan account is subject to any restriction or limitation imposed by the underlying investment funds and/or your Plan, in particular, policies with respect to excessive trading (also known as market timing). The Plan's recordkeeper has put into place systematic solutions reasonably designed to assist investment fund companies with enforcing policies on and prohibitions relating to excessive trading. Any and all restrictions that the Plan's recordkeeper is enforcing will be identified to participants on the Plan's participant Web site, as well as through its Voice Response System, and may also be disclosed in materials provided to you describing the Plan's investment procedures and designated investment alternatives. In addition, at any time an investment fund or manager may limit or refuse to honor your investment election if it determines that it would result in excessive trading and/or would otherwise be adverse to the interests of the other shareholders and/or the investment fund, and/or would otherwise violate a policy of the underlying investment fund, and may require the Plan's recordkeeper to impose restrictions upon your ability to engage in transactions in an investment (or multiple investments).

The Company will provide you with the following information at your request:

- Copies of prospectuses (or, alternatively, short-form or summary prospectuses) or similar documents relating to designated investment alternatives under the Plan
- Copies of any financial statements or reports, such as statements of additional information, and any other similar materials relating to designated investments under the Plan to the extent provided to the Plan,
- A list of the assets comprising the portfolio of each designated investment alternative that are “plan assets” and the value of each such asset, and
- Information concerning the share value of each investment and the date of the valuation.

D. ERISA RIGHTS

As a participant in the Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan participants shall be entitled to:

- 1) Examine without charge at the office of the Administrative Committee all documents governing the Plan, including collective bargaining agreements, if any, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration;
- 2) Obtain copies of all documents governing the operation of the Plan, including collective bargaining agreements, if any, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description upon written request to the Administrative Committee. A reasonable charge may be made for the copies;
- 3) Receive a summary of the Plan’s annual financial report. The Company is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report; and
- 4) Obtain a statement telling you whether you have a right to receive benefits under the Plan and if so, what your benefits would be if you leave the Company. If you do not have a right to Plan benefits, the statement will tell you how many more years you must work to earn a right to benefits. This statement must be requested in writing; it is not required to be given more than once every 12 months. The Plan must provide the statement free of charge.

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of employee benefit plans. The people who administer your Plan, called “fiduciaries” of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union (if any), or any other person may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

If your claim for a benefit under the Plan is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you may take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Administrative Committee to provide the materials and to pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent for reasons beyond the control of the Administrative Committee. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan’s decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order, you may file suit in Federal court.

If it should happen that fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay the costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees if, for example, it finds that your claim is frivolous.

If you have any questions about the Plan, you should contact the Administrative Committee. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Administrative Committee, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

E. NON-ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFITS

You may not assign the benefits provided for you by the Plan, nor are these benefits subject to the claims of any creditor, unless otherwise provided by law. One exception to this rule is the "Qualified Domestic Relations Order". A Qualified Domestic Relations Order is defined as a judgment, decree or court order, approving property settlement agreements, and/or relating to child support, alimony or marital property rights of a spouse, child or other dependent of a participant. To be binding, a Qualified Domestic Relations Order must specify certain required legal information and cannot alter the amount or form of benefits payable under the Plan. You may obtain a copy of the procedures that the Plan's administrator uses to determine if an order is a Qualified Domestic Relations Order without charge.

F. RIGHTS TO EMPLOYMENT

The existence of the Plan does not affect the employment rights of any employee or the rights of the Company to discharge an employee.

G. FUTURE OF THE PLAN

While the Company hopes and expects to continue the Plan indefinitely, it reserves the right to terminate, discontinue making contributions to, amend or modify the Plan at any time, acting through written resolution of the controlling entity of the Company. Upon termination of the Plan, you will become 100% vested in your total Account Balance. The Company will arrange for distributions upon Plan termination as soon as administratively feasible.

H. VETERAN'S RIGHTS

If you are a returning veteran, special rules apply to your Elective Deferrals and any form of Matching Contributions made to the Plan. In general, re-employed veterans are permitted to make additional Elective Deferrals with respect to their period of military service during a period which begins on their date of reemployment and has the same length as the lesser of (a) the period of their absence due to uniformed service, multiplied by 3 or (b) 5 years. If you are a returning veteran and believe you may be entitled to contribute under these special provisions, please contact the Company.
